

PAUL JHON MAGBANUA

Website Designer / Developer

A front-end developer and web designer. I create clean, responsive, and modern websites using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Tailwind CSS. I specialize in building personal portfolios, business sites, and custom pages that are fast, SEO-friendly, and mobile-ready. Whether you need a sleek landing page or a full website, I'll bring your vision to life. Let's work together — message me to get started!
